$250,000 Fire At Beaverlodge

Heat Wave New Terror In Floods

Warning of Danger Is Sounded as Sun Hits Mountain Snow

VANCOUVER, June 5.—(CP)—A heat wave is sweeping British Columbia today, striking snow-capped mountains with its deadly hand, and bringing a new chill of fear to flood-weary Fraser valley residents.

A high of 93 is predicted for Lytton, 170 miles northeast of Vancouver, at the junction of the Thompson and Fraser rivers. Kamloops will feel 90 degree temperatures.

Warning of danger to flood-rotted dikes was sounded by C. T. Webb, district engineer of the Dominion water and power bureau, who flew over a great section of B.C. Friday.

Army and civilian workers in the smelter city of Trail, B.C., on the Columbia river battled to stop the rampaging waters of the flood-swollen river from sweeping into the heart of city's business section.

Heavy duty pumps and 12,000 sandbags were flown in late yesterday by the RCAF to help in the fight. The pumps and sandbags were greeted with cheers by the exhausted flood workers.

One hundred waterfront residents have been evacuated from their homes.

The public works department warned of a new threat to the defences of the West Kootenay Centre. The Columbia, which has already caused the greatest destruction in Oregon history, could rip wide holes in the levees with its catastrophic driftwood.

6 Buildings Razed In Business Area

Special to the Edmonton Bulletin

BEAVERLODGE, June 5.—Six buildings were completely wiped out and at least five others were badly damaged Friday afternoon as a raging fire swept through the business section of Beaverlodge. Damage is estimated at more than $200,000.

Beaverlodge is a town of about 350 inhabitants 275 air miles northwest of Edmonton.

Buildings destroyed were: Morse and Meraw machine shop, Pfan Variety Shop, Hume's Garage, Davis Warehouse and show room, Northwest Motors, Adams Brothers General Store.

In addition a restaurant operated by Mrs. S. Clark, the A. S. Olson shoe shop and the town offices, all housed in the Davis warehouse were destroyed.

The roaring blaze started in the machine shop operated by Arnold Morse and Harry Meraw and spread through the entire block of business establishments, destroying everything within two hours.

Origin of the blaze is believed to be a short circuit on a car which was being repaired in the machine shop.

Fire broke out during lunch hour and flames had practically engulfed the shop before being noticed.

Fanned by a strong north wind, the fire roared through the whole block unchecked in short order.

It first spread to the Pfan Variety shop, a two-story building operated by John Pfan. The building was being renovated at the time and only half of it was being used for business purposes.

From there it swept through the garage operated by D. C. Hume, the warehouse owned by Stan Davis, Northwest Motors, operated by Sam and Robert Martin and William Wasmuth and the Adams Brothers general store, operated by William Adams.

During the height of the fire, exploding shotgun shells sprayed pellets into the crowd but caused no injuries.

10 Persons Homeless

About 10 persons were left homeless but none was injured and all went to homes of relatives or friends.

In addition to destroying the six buildings on the one side of the street, the intense heat from the roaring blaze caused an unestimated amount of damage to fronts of five other buildings across the street. Windows were all broken and fronts scorched by the heat in the Goynie hotel, operated by Louie Dove, Kautsky's Winter Cafe, owned by Dan Wong; Imperial Oil offices; Cash store, a general store owned by Darcy Gaudin; and the Peace River meat market.

Every available man and woman rushed to the scene of the spectacular fire to join firefighters as help salvage goods, important papers and furniture from the destroyed buildings.

Bob Hume, a business man who operates a men's wear shop less than a block from the destroyed buildings, said, "The fire spread so fast there wasn't a chance to save any of the buildings."

"People rushed from all parts of town and also came from miles around. They sawed a lot of stuff from the stores and offices, but at the same time a lot of it couldn't be saved."

Five outfits as well as volunteer crews joined in the battle against the flames. The call went out to the Adams Brothers store. Very little merchandise was saved and little damage of stock and the store itself will run into more than $50,000.

Northwest Motors was only purchased by the Adams Brothers by the Martin brothers and William Wasmuth for $20,000. In addition, hundreds of thousands of dollars of valuable equipment was lost.

The Davis warehouse building was just completed last November and was one of the most modern buildings in the town.

Fast Action Saves Much

The Beaverlodge crash wagon and two Imperial Oil exploration trucks, fully equipped with firefighting units, were on the scene within minutes after the fire was noticed and saved the fire from possibly spreading to the residential section.

E. B. Benjamin of Edmonton, who is travelling along the Alaska highway gathering material for a book, accompanied by S. Kohn, arrived at Beaverlodge while the fire was roaring through the business block.

"Sprinklers spread almost over the whole town and a lot of small fires were started on roofs," he said.

Battle Over Edmonton Zoo Still Goes On

Smoke over Edmonton Zoo has cleared sufficiently to show the honors going to the crusaders. The bears are going to get a new home.

But to the 100-member Edmonton Humane Society, city council's decision to spend $1,000 building a grand level bear cage merely is victory in the first round of what appears a long-drawn-out campaign.

Headed by Mrs. Allan Miles, president, the group recently handed council an ultimatum: "Give the animals in the zoo decent living quarters, release them to the wild, or destroy them, or do not keep them in their present conditions."

Mrs. Miles said she was against animals being kept in captivity but if done it should be humane.

The city zoo specializes in Canadian species, there are bears, wolves, coyotes, deer, elk, birds and rabbits. Un-Canadian are the monkeys.

Jack Nyler, assistant parks superintendent, was sympathetic to Society's approaches but was limited to a $5,000 annual budget, out of which the one keeper's salary and the animals' upkeep had to come.

The society contends the monkeys and birds are in too-confined quarters, poorly ventilated and that the animals' health is suffering. "The rabbits should have a bigger pen—though why anyone should have to go to a zoo to see a rabbit I can't imagine," said the diminutive, grey-haired president.

"The coyotes are in a cage not big enough for one let alone three. They sleep in the wind, rain and snow—there's roof over only a corner of their pen."

"There are no birds for the animals—I think they should have

The Society's campaign dates back to 1935—and Mrs. Miles has been in it all the time.

City Architect Is Opposed To Hotel in Civic Centre

Opposition to the proposal to place a hotel on the civic centre site was expressed today by Maxwell C. Dewar, city architect, in an open letter to City Commissioners and members of city council.

"As the proposal has been before the council and the Town Planning Commission I have no alternative but to voice my opposition to it in an open letter to the citizens of Edmonton and appeal to their better judgment," Mr. Dewar stated.

"On what grounds the city commissioners would recommend to council the acceptance of this proposal, and its adoption by council is beyond my comprehension."

"DISREGARD OF TRUST"—"I consider that this action is one of the most flagrant disregard of civic trust that has been perpetrated on the citizens for a long time."

"It is proposed by the hurried passing of a bylaw to upset a major civic concern without proper appreciation of public opinion; to persuade the provincial town planner; and his minister to issue a certificate legalizing this bylaw without reference to the public."

Mr. Dewar has protested to provincial authorities against issuance of the necessary certificate to permit rezoning of the property.

This action was taken by him as administrator of the city's town planning and zoning bylaws.

"I am pleased to know that sanction for the project will not be forthcoming from the provincial authorities," Mr. Dewar stated.

OPPOSED BY BURGESS
 He referred to the special meeting of the Town Planning Commission at which rezoning of the property was recommended despite strong opposition from Prof. C. S. Burgess, chairman of the commission.

Mr. Dewar said he would never be able to understand this action.

Shanghai Blast
 SHANGHAI, June 5.—(AP)—A terrific explosion rocked downtown Shanghai today. One fireman was killed and another injured in controlling fires which broke out in three buildings. Authorities said the blast was caused by stored sulphur in an abandoned match factory which caught fire.

He told Cecil Merritt, VC, (PC-Vancouver-Burrard) "We are stimulating experts where we can and by whatever means we can."

The minister said that recent contracts were concluded to supply aluminum and nickel to the U.S.

He said the import restrictions imposed to conserve U.S. dollars are working well.

"We see our way out of this in the foreseeable future," he said.

BIRTHDAY SUIT AMUSES CROWD

VICTORIA, June 5.—(CP)—Camera clicked and tourists gazed in British Columbia's capital yesterday as two little boys went for a swim.

Nothing unusual, except one had red trunks and the other had only his birthday suit.

And the swimming hole they chose was the fountain and pool in front of the provincial legislature buildings.

Eventually they picked up their clothes from the lawn, got dressed and went home. They were too busy to tell anyone their names.

Town Planner Declared Need

Appointment of a town planner either as a permanent civic servant or on a part-time consultative basis was urged today by C. S. Burgess, architect and chairman of the Town Planning Commission.

"Edmonton or any other great city will never get good town planning without hiring specialists in town planning to draft plans for development of residential and other districts, highway and other projects," Mr. Burgess said.

Vancouver some years ago called in a firm of town planners to report on development, and has again retained the services of this firm for further study of the planning situation in that city, Mr. Burgess added.

Trade With States $100 Million Above This Time in 1947

OTTAWA, June 5.—(CP)—Trade Minister Howe told Commons last night that Canada's trade with the United States is $100,000,000 better than it was at this time a year ago.

He told Cecil Merritt, VC, (PC-Vancouver-Burrard) "We are stimulating experts where we can and by whatever means we can."

The minister said that recent contracts were concluded to supply aluminum and nickel to the U.S.

He said the import restrictions imposed to conserve U.S. dollars are working well.

He'd purchased many tickets before, but he never was lucky "on horses."

Patten is married, and has no children.

KILLS FRIEND One Dead After Ball Game Row

PITTSBURGH, June 5.—(AP)—A father of five was killed and his best friend held, detectives reported today, because of an argument which followed Boston Braves' big inning in last night's baseball game with Pittsburgh Pirates.

Shot to death in a suburban bar was Frank Skerich, 35, detectives said that Michael Zack, 37, signed a statement in which he told of shooting his best friend with a .25 calibre pistol.

Officers said Zack would be charged with murder, and quoted him as telling this story:

"While the two men were listening to a radio account of the game, they heard Boston score seven runs in the seventh inning to forge ahead 10-5. Zack offered to bet the Pirates still would win. Skerich accepted the wager and Zack paid off after the game ended in favor of Boston, 10-7."

Later an argument developed and the men scuffled outside the bar.

Zack left but returned in 10 minutes and after a few more words, fired two shots at Skerich, who slumped to the floor, saying: "I've got me."

GOVERNMENT AID
 Some Fraser valley farmers have reported selling their livestock at "fantastically low prices" to buyers taking advantage of their predicament. To offset this livestock "plundering" the provincial government also promised assistance.

The rehabilitation largely was directed to the Fraser Valley, which already has suffered more than $20,000,000 damage, 9,000 head homeless and more than 60,000 acres laid a watery waste.

But other areas like Prince Rupert, which today reported optimistically "we expect to get our trains moving in three weeks," would also benefit.

Police Seeking Mental Patient
CALGARY, June 5.—(CP)—City and Mounted Police today are looking for one of two patients who escaped from the provincial mental hospital at Ponoka, Wednesday. The other patient was caught Thursday by RCMP.

One step probably will involve recruiting of the army to its total of 10,000 men and 17,000. The original cost was total for the two other youths.

Services was set at $1,000 men, but recruiting targets were later noted downward 25 per cent.

NOT DOG HOUSE BUT HIS BELL BOTHERS GEORGE

DES MOINES, Ia., June 5.—(AP)—It wasn't the dog house but the dog's bell that plagued the married life of George Nelson.

Seeking a divorce in district court, he testified Thursday that his wife removed a bell he had attached to his dog's collar and fastened it on the back door.

Nelson wanted to keep track of the dog out in the corn fields, Nelson said. "But she wanted the bell to check on my leave and return to the house."

The hearing is continuing.

My Love Wins Epsom Derby

RISOM, England, June 5.—(CP)—My Love, a French-bred colt, won the 16th running of the famed Epsom Downs Derby today, less than a month after the Aga Khan became only an employer.

The 100-to-9 shot triumphed by 1 1/2 lengths over Lord Volterra's Royal Drake, another French horse, with the Aga Khan's Nour in third and place by four lengths. The winner's share was $49,726.

Jockey Rae Johnson piloted the winner through the 14-mile test over the up-and-down racing strip in two minutes and 46 seconds. It was the slowest time since 1932.

TRACK SOFT
The track, however, was soft from rains that did not stop until dawn.

The field of 32 was the largest in 84 years and the London Evening Mail estimated the crowd at 750,000, many of whom didn't see the race at all.

(Reuters estimated the crowd at close to 1,000,000.)
The King and Queen, Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip and other members of the Royal Family occupied the Royal box. The race also was seen by one of an hour before post time when the Irish-owned Solar Slipper was discovered to be lame.

The colt injured himself in his stall during the night.

Hotel Plan Rapped By City Architect

by the commission.
Bailly said a $500,000 hotel had wiped out in one move 35 years' endeavor to bring about a proper civic center in the heart of Edmonton, Mr. Dewar complained.

Statement that no other suitable site for this hotel is available was termed ridiculous by Mr. Dewar.
He would have been prepared to offer a suggestion had the opportunity been presented to his department, Mr. Dewar stated.

Shortly after the city center has been secured over many years. Now all proposed buildings for development of this area are to be pushed around to satisfy construction of the hotel, the city architect said.

"It seems that any outside influence is only required to dangle a luscious proposal before civic and business leaders and they readily to practically offer the keys of the city to the proposer."

Reviewing the history of civic center development, Mr. Dewar recalled that in 1912 town planners recommended a site in the area between the CNR station and 106th St. to be designated as a civic center area.

This report, like others, was rejected. The development was not until 1924 when the late Ald. L. C. Gibbs again aroused interest of a civic council. The council confirmed the 1912 proposal.

PLAN RESTORED IN 1933
The plan was again re-opened when a proposal that a garage and show rooms building be permitted to locate in the area. Permission was granted and the civic center area was changed by council's resolution to permit this construction, Mr. Dewar stated.

In 1933, Mr. Dewar said, the original civic center was restored and properties within the area were purchased by the city.
In 1947 development plans were submitted to council by Prof. C. S. Burgess and Mr. Dewar. The plan was accepted in principle, but no further action was taken by council.

The matter was again re-opened when a proposal for a civic auditorium and arts centre came before council. A special committee of council was appointed to report on this project. Mr. Dewar's illness retarded work of the committee, and no report has been made to council.

IS BIG PROBLEM
Mr. Dewar stated there is a lack of appreciation of the immensity of civic center problem. This is evident in the proposed Workmen's Compensation building, the site selected for it being ridiculously inadequate in Mr. Dewar's opinion.

"Many cities are spending millions of dollars trying to develop a civic center whereas we, in Edmonton, have within our grasp, if not all the property desired, at least a substantial area which would permit of the development of a civic center that would lend dignity and purpose to our city planning," Mr. Dewar stated.

"I feel it is my duty by right of office to express my strong opposition to this hotel proposal, whatever means possible until the city administration has courage and foresight enough to agree on a policy and a development for the whole civic centre commensurate with a city having the future that undoubtedly lies before the city of Edmonton."

"The citizens of Edmonton have too much at stake to allow such an iniquitous piece of legislation to pass unchallenged."

Serious Shortage Of Fuel Supplies Predicted in U.S.

MILWAUKEE, June 5.—(AP)—Interior Secretary Julius Krug last night predicted serious shortages of electrical power and limited supplies of gas and oil for the United States next winter.

"We will spend the winter of 1948-9 tottering on the brink of a serious power breakdown," Krug said.

"We just do not have a sufficient safety factor above the peak electric power loads."

"Supplies of oil and gas are increasing, but so is demand, and our known reserves of both fuels are limited."

Wool for Poland

There were conflicting reports on the battle for Jenin, top of the Arab triangle in northern Palestine. An Iraqi communiqué in Baghdad last night said 5,000 Jews were routed there with a loss of 500 killed and 1,000 wounded but Jewish leaders in Tel Aviv said Israeli forces continued to "hold all positions captured in this sector."

The Jews reported Arabs rushing reinforcements to meet the threat to the Nabulus-Jenin-Tulkarm triangle, but said Arab counterattacks were repulsed.

Missing Airplane Returns to Base

VANCOUVER, June 5.—(CP)—A silver monoplane, missing since yesterday in a flight from here to Calgary, arrived back at Vancouver airport late yesterday.

2nd Nfld. Referendum On Govt. Form in July

By Dave McIntosh
ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 5.—(CP)—The second referendum on Newfoundland's future form of government will be held about the middle of July, it was announced today. The exact date has not been decided.

The referendum will decide between confederation with Canada and responsible government. In Thursday's referendum Newfoundlanders eliminated a third choice—the present form of commission government—but did not give the other two a clear majority. The latest returns showed responsible government leading the poll with 67,670 votes, confederation 41,500 and commission 21,161. A little more than 80 per cent of the eligible 176,397 votes had been counted. It was expected it would be at least another week before the final results would be known. Many isolated outposts were to be heard from, but observers did not expect the final result to vary much from the present standing. They said that, if anything, confederation might close the gap with responsible government a little. They expected that a definite announcement on the date of the second referendum would be made the latter part of next week.

City Property Assn. Supports Federals In Rent Fight

Decision of Canadian Property Owners' Association to challenge the Dominion government's authority to maintain rent controls will be supported by the Edmonton branch of the association. J. R. McIntosh, secretary of the Edmonton Property Owners' Association, said that about three months ago his group strongly urged the parent association to use all its power to persuade the Dominion government to remove rent controls. "Our representatives here have become impatient with the delay in this matter and are therefore pleased that the parent association has now decided to test the authority of the government to maintain these controls," Mr. McIntosh said.

ACTION CAN'T BE UNDONE

4 Reprieved Murderers Safe Despite Lords

LONDON, June 5.—(CP)—Four convicted murderers saved from the gallows by an order now challenged in Parliament need feel no fear, legal authorities said today. Even if parliament decides Home Secretary Chuter Ede exceeded his powers in granting the reprieves, they will not hang. "There can be no question of undoing reprieves already ordered," an authority said. House of Commons proceedings today indicated that the government has changed its mind and decided that a statement must be made to the house on a challenge laid down by Lord Goddard, Lord Chief Justice of England, in the House of Lords. Lord Goddard said Ede unquestionably had the right to reprieve murderers as individuals after examining their particular cases and making a recommendation to the King. But, he added, Ede had announced he would reprieve all murderers after the commons approved the proposal to abolish the death penalty for five years. The commons decision was rejected by the house of lords who can prevent the new law from becoming effective for two years. The four murderers given reprieves under Ede's policy are James Camb, convicted of killing an actress on a liner and pushing her body into the sea; Gipsy George Smith, convicted of robbing and killing an elderly man; Donald George Thomas, convicted of killing a policeman; and Morris Andrew Magav, convicted of killing a theatre watchman.

Agrologists Score Lack of Facilities

Conventions Seek More University Courses

University of Alberta has only one-third necessary accommodation for agriculture students, it was decided at a one-day annual meeting of the Alberta Institute of Agrologists Friday. About 30 professional agriculturalists from all over the province attended the meet.

It was the second annual convention of the AIA. Because the University lacks accommodation to teach agriculture students fully in their courses, the AIA will make a request that the accommodation in the agriculture faculty be increased. Another request to be made by the AIA will be that a refresher course be provided for Alberta agrologists sponsored by the University or some other body. Publication of the yearly manual, which will contain latest information on approved agricultural methods, was recommended by the convention. AIA will sponsor the publication.

The recommendations were included in report of the professional standards committee. Chairman of the committee was Dr. C. F. Bentley, of the University faculty. Other members of the committee were Dr. G. B. Sanford, of the University; F. M. Miller, Olds Agricultural School; A. G. Kirshine of United Grain Growers; and W. R. Weir of Calgary; L. E. Tyner and D. H. McCallum of Edmonton; and C. H. Anderson of Beaverlodge.

Fire Ravages Duluth, Minn.

DULUTH, Minn., June 5.—(AP)—Fire swept through sections of two retail business blocks in the heart of Duluth early today causing damage estimated by police at "several million dollars." A four-story retail furniture store and the nine-story Duluth Board of Trade building housing the grain exchange and grain commission offices were swept by the blaze. Nearly a score of small retail stores burned. The wind-fanned flames threatened the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company's building, the Wollin Building housing the Duluth Meats and Iron Range Railway offices and those of the Oliver Mining Company before it was brought under control. Both long distance and local telephone services were disrupted. More than 150 Duluth firemen manned every available piece of fire apparatus. Some apparatus came from nearby Superior, Wis. One fireman was slightly injured.

An order issued this morning by the Alberta Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board authorizes the Leduc oil field to resume crude production today at rates equal to 80 per cent of former production quotas. The order is effective for a 10 day period. Wells taking production from the D2 zone are permitted to produce 800 barrels of oil and water in the ten-day period, providing not more than 125 barrels are taken in any 24-hour period. D3 zone producers are allowed to produce 1,500 barrels of oil and water providing the total for any 24-hour period does not exceed 175 barrels. Wells located on Atlantic property are not covered by the order.

The Japanese Priest Said: "DOMINUS VOBISCUM"

It was early Sunday morning in Tokyo. A cosmopolitan congregation had assembled in the Catholic church for the first Mass of the day. Along with the Japanese present, there were English, French and Portuguese sailors, the family of a Belgian diplomat, Filipino business men and a sprinkling of U. S. Military Police.

The Japanese priest was compelled to start the service without an assistant to answer the prayers. He had hardly begun the Mass, when a burly GI rose from his seat, walked to the altar and took the place of the absent server.

"At first," he said afterwards, "I felt a little strange serving a Jap priest in a Jap church. But after he turned around and said in Latin: 'Dominus vobiscum'... I felt just the way I did when I served Father O'Malley in our church back home."

"Dominus vobiscum!"... "The Lord be with you!"

How familiar and homelike those Latin words sounded... to the English, the French, the Portuguese, Belgians and Filipinos... for they had heard them Sunday after Sunday in their own church at home.

Despite their language differences, each could follow the prayers of the Mass... and the actions of the priest. For each had a double-column prayer book—one column in Latin, one in his native language.

Many services of divine worship in the Catholic Church are conducted in the native language of the people. But the Mass... the official and world-wide act of Catholic worship... is generally conducted in Latin because this dead language never changes and is most appropriate to express the fundamentally unchanging worship instituted by Christ at the Last Supper.

Perhaps you have heard Catholics speak of the Mass... or have seen them thronging to Mass on Sunday and other days. If you would like to know more about the Mass... and why the Mass attracts millions of Catholics to church regularly... we will be happy to send you a free pamphlet explaining the Mass and reasons behind it in a clear-cut manner. Write today... ask for Pamphlet No. 6-N.

Fame Beckoning City Composer

Bob McMullin's Symphony Draws National Recognition

By Dick Sherbanik

The random finger of fame seems to be beckoning Edmonton composer Bob McMullin.

Those long-awaited, difficult, first steps on the climb to musical fame have been attained by the 27-year-old city musician.

Three months ago Sir Ernest MacMillan and the Toronto Symphony Orchestra presented a concert performance of Bob McMullin's first symphony, the Rocky Mountain Suite.

The composition was well-received by Canadian musicians and now the music which the young Edmontonian wrote while overseas with the RCAF is receiving Dominion-wide recognition.

Rocky Mountain Suite has been entered in a contest of Canadian music work sponsored by the Composers, Authors, and Publishers Association of Canada.

Next January, McMullin will travel to Montreal, expenses paid by CAPAC, to see if his music can top that of other Canadian composers.

In addition to the nation-wide fame which first place in the contest would bring him, there's a "quite sizeable" cash award he may bring home to his wife Joan.

McMullin is planning another symphony, but he won't be penning that for a least a year because of a crowded date schedule now.

At present, in addition to his arranging and sax and clarinet playing at the Trocadero, he's busy making a copy of his Mountain Suite for a Canadian music publishing company.

It seems that there are few if any real Canadian publishing firms in the Dominion usually they're just agents for the U.S. publishing companies. The firm interested in McMullin's music wants to keep it strictly Canadian, so they intend to make photostatic copies of the suite, and rent the copies to Canadian orchestras.

The same firm wants McMullin to do a two-act arrangement of his suite.

Originally the Rocky Mountain Suite had three movements. Elimination of one made the composition better for program length, so Sir Ernest MacMillan suggested the present two Mountain sketches for the Suite.

Sir Ernest wants McMullin to make the other movement into a separate composition, and is giving him a helping hand with the task.

Band Concerts
Don't forget that the first summer band concert will be held tomorrow at Queen Elizabeth park, with the Edmonton Schoolboys' band in attendance.

Here's the schedule for this month's Sunday park concerts: June 13—Borden park, with the RCAF band playing.

June 20—Two concerts: Legislative building grounds, with the RCAF band; Queen Elizabeth park, Schoolboys' band.

June 27—Victoria park, Loyal Edmonton Regiment band.

July 4—These arrangements are yet definite. Two concerts: Borden park, Salvation Army band; Queen Elizabeth park, Edmonton Musicians' Union.

Following are the members who presented the program of miscellaneous selections:

Joan Gillespie, piano solo, Kahlavsky's Sonatina in C; Margaret Prehoy, soprano, Loughborough's O Men from the Fields; Schubert's My Peace Thou Art.

Shirley Jackson, piano solo, Schubert's Moment Musical; Kathleen Clarke, contralto, Beach's Ah, Love But The Day; Schumann's My Moonlight; Avenir Nizoff, pianist, Sonata No. 6.

This last selection, the Sonata, was composed by Mr. Nizoff in honor of his late father, and is dedicated to his memory.

Accompanists were Kathleen Gould, Della Anderson, Shirley Jackson, Velma Owen.

The Music Forum will hold its annual informal banquet and election of officers in the King Edward hotel, Saturday, June 12.

About 50 persons are expected. Varied films will be shown after the banquet.

Immigration Report Expected Shortly

No word has yet been received from Alberta House in London England as to the number of British immigrants that might be expected in Alberta this year.

Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of agriculture, said today that in charge of the British end of the newly-established London office, was still making a survey of the possibility of increased British immigration.

A report could be expected within a few days, Mr. Hooke indicated.

EISENHOWER SPEAKS.—

Dwight D. Eisenhower in his message and speeches. Edited by Rudolph L. Treuenfels. Farrar, Straus and Co. 239 pages.

This volume, despite its seemingly dry subject matter, possesses much interest and life. Credit for the liveliness of style must go solely to Gen. Eisenhower, for he is a speaker, not a writer.

Gen. Eisenhower is a speaker, not a writer. His collection of his never has—few "ghost-writers" could convey, as well as he, such great modesty, power, humor and flair for anecdote.

This notable collection of public statements includes the General's messages and speeches from his V-E Day proclamation to his final report as Chief of Staff, on Feb. 7, 1948. The highlights are:

The moving and eloquent address at the Guildhall in London; his testimony before two Congressional committees; his brilliant press conference in Paris which illuminated so many issues of the just-concluded war; his final report as Chief of Staff—a pointed and concise treatise on modern war.

The greater part of the book, however, is composed of brief addresses at various colleges and universities—and to such diverse organizations as the American Legion, the United Jewish Appeal, the CIO, the Economic Club of New York and many others.

GUIDING PRINCIPLE
Dominant throughout the book is the General's guiding principle—co-operation. That is, co-operation between man and man, group and group, nation and nation.

In this volume, then, the reader is given a revealing insight to the character and personality of Gen. Eisenhower—but one facet only. The General's autobiography, to be published this fall, will complete the picture.

ADAM'S RIB.—By Ruth Herschberger. Pellegrini and Cudahy. 221 pages.

Here is a vigorous and indignant protest by a woman, against the inferior position in which women find themselves today. The author, although she leaves her protestations with excellent applied humor, is nonetheless vehement.

Miss Herschberger is violently up in arms about the way men apply such words as vestigial, negative, receptive, passive, etc., when referring to the female, but reserve such fine terms as mobile, independent and aggressive for the male.

She opines that men write of biology as they write of history—from the masculine viewpoint, only.

It is Miss Herschberger's claim that women are not naturally passive. Any general inclination towards frigidity on the part of the female is the result of combined pressure from parents, society and particularly husbands, who have much less trouble with wives that are passive rather than ardent.

NEGATIVE THINKING
Men are negative even in thinking of their mothers. Upon close examination, says the author, the much-publicized mother-love of the male is selfish and definitely narcissistic, in that men seem to be congratulating their mothers in being fortunate enough to bear them.

Until women are allowed a voice in decisions which affect them most profoundly, concludes Miss Herschberger, they will continue to be inferior to the male.

THE DEVIL AND DESTINY.—By Theodora Du Bois. New York: Crime Club-Doubleday and Co. 186 pages.

An alcoholic lady falls, or is pushed, into a swimming pool and drowns, thereby solving one of her husband's more pressing problems. Among Miles Sparkman's other troubles are the women who are in love with him. There are far too

Transit Patronage Shows May Jump

Patronage on the Edmonton transit system during May totalled 3,060,822 compared with 2,977,535 for the same month last year, an increase of 113,287.

Total of passengers carried for the five months ended May 31, 1948 was 16,020,150 compared with 15,088,717 for the five months of last year, a decrease of 931,433.

Many of these and the only one he loves in return is the girl who is suspected of murdering his wife.

THE STARTING GUN.—By George Hagley. New York: Crime Club-Doubleday and Co. 185 pages.

Murder is done in Madison Square Garden just as the starting gun is fired for the 440-yard race. Everyone is so intent, that the death of the starter isn't noticed until the race is over. Inspector Schmidt, along with his "Dr. Watson" friend, solve the murder after the "red herring" is eliminated.

SO DEADLY FAIR.—By Gertrude Walker. New York: Putnam's Sons.

Main idea seems to be the total depravity of a woman who murdered her husband, got a simple bloke named Walter into fearful trouble and went on from there to ruin Walter, a pessimistic cuss, tells about it with an eye to violent effects and touches of sentiment here and there. A fire at a motel and a trial for life come into the picture.

THE SCARLET FEATHER.—By Frank Gruber. New York: Rhinoceros and Co.

In which those veteran playboys, Johnny Fletcher and Sam Cragg, attend a Chicago poultry show, meet a Gold Coast girl, mix into murder, try to raise their hotel rent and all like that in their usual manner. Feather probably came from Red Thunder, a fighting cock of the Jungle Shawl breed, and corpse is Walter Peuney, expert on Whitehacks. Fun for Grubertites.

Teacher Shortage Remedy Sought

Teacher shortage in Alberta may be relieved by immigration of Old Country teachers.

Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of education, said today department officials had convened on Thursday and discussed the province's shortage of nearly 600 teachers.

Many Old Country teachers had written the Alberta Department of Economic Affairs asking possibilities for employment in this province, and the education officials are asking for more detailed information on the number of teachers who might be available.

Mr. Casey stressed the enquiry was only of an exploratory nature.

TODAY'S MESSAGE

The Ultimate Success

On one occasion, the disciples asked Christ, "Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?" Calling a child to Him, the Savior replied: "Whoever shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven."

Children are humble. They have faith and trust. They are teachable. These are the qualities that make them lovable. These are traits that men must cultivate if they hope to achieve the ultimate success—acceptance by God in the hour of judgment.

In a world beset by sin and materialism, it is sometimes difficult to keep our faith bright and shining. Sometimes it is hard, in the struggle for economic security, to preserve the spirit of humility which necessarily implies a readiness to sacrifice personal interest for the common good. Nor is it always easy to accept disappointments and hardships, even though we recognize them as an indispensable part of the training every soul which aspires to salvation must undergo.

Nevertheless, we must accept the fact that spiritual success must be earned. A child wins favor in its parents' eyes by its ready submission to authority, by its cheerfulness, and trust, its desire to please. The same attitude must exist in our relationship to God, who is the Father of all men, and whose will must be accepted in all things if we are to measure up to his special standards of success.

God puts no limitations on man's legitimate success in this earthly life. He counts His saints among the rich as well as the poor, among great as well as "little" men, among the learned as well as the stupid. However, worldly success must not destroy the childlike attributes which keep the soul close to God. It must not engender a pride which tempts men to put inferior blessings before the transcendent grace of living in constant harmony with the Creator.

The secret of ultimate success is not how much we possess but how truly God possesses us. It is only through union with God that man may reach the sublimity and glory that is his appointed destiny.

Mission Work To Be Restored

TORONTO—Restoration of mission work in Japan is top priority in recommendations to the United Church's Overseas Mission Board by the delegation of four which has just visited all the Asiatic lands where mission work was carried on before the late war. Dr. J. S. Astbury of Montreal, veteran educationist on the delegation, commended to the Board at Emmanuel College, Toronto, proposals for an international postgraduate university under Christian auspices in Tokyo. Mrs. H. D. Taylor, foreign secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society, urged the rebuilding of many churches and return of experienced missionaries to Japan. Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Carey of Scotland were authorized to sail for Japan for the first term of service. Rev. and Mrs. Don Clugston of Ottawa are to sail for West China, and Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Embree of Halifax, N.S., for Central India this year under this appointment. Other appointments may take place later for sailing next autumn. Rev. John T. Turner, D.D., Canadian Missionary, was appointed as full-time secretary of the Evangelical Alliance representing nine missions at work in Angola, Portuguese West African Colony, Gilt of $15,000 by Oliver Congregational Church, Toronto, for a hospital at Chissamba in the United Church Angola Mission was planned as a memorial to the late Misses Helen and Margaret Melville, formerly Canadian missionaries there. Memorial service was held for Rev. F. H. Russell of India, R. S. Longley of West China and T. A. Broadfoot of South China, all deceased during the year. All of them were educated in Winnipeg, although Mr. Longley was born in Nova Scotia. The late Dr. George C. Anglin, Toronto, long a member of the Board's medical examining group, was also included. Centenary of the New Hebrides Mission and golden jubilee celebration of the Korean mission were announced for later this year. Sixtieth anniversary of the Honan Mission was also noted.

IL 71 Producers In Leduc Field

Resumption of production at Leduc this morning means that 53 Imperial and 17 independent wells will join Atlantic No. 3 in supplying western refineries with crude oil. The basis on which production is permitted limits well to 50 per cent of the former quota. It is hoped that pipeline facilities will be capable of handling oil produced from the major part of the field at this rate.

In order to facilitate removal of normal production from the field part of the oil from Atlantic No. 3 being put back into the ground through Atlantic No. 1. (This process was stopped a week ago when the attempt to flood Atlantic No. 3 with water started). Oil from the three Woodbend wells will be hauled out by truck. On Monday trucks will start hauling 2,000 barrels per day from the field to storage facilities at the Edmonton refinery.

The order covers a 10-day period only it may be presumed that the resumption of production in the nature of an experiment preparatory to the resumption of full production at the end of that period if the Atlantic situation improves.

The attempt to control the well by injecting water into Imperial No. 48 continues, but without apparent result. Diminution of flow from the rogue well is believed to be due to cratering in the hole and resultant formation of shale bridges.

FOUR EXCEPTIONS

Four wells in the field that have been completed are unable to benefit from the new ruling. They are Atlantic Nos. 1 and 2, and Imperial Nos. 48 and 50. The order specifically exempts the first two of these wells. Imperial No. 48, a D3 well, is believed to be injecting water into the Devonian formations to flood the Atlantic well. Imperial No. 50 was last reported to be awaiting arrival of pump equipment to get oil from the D2 zone.

Reference in the order to production of oil and water recalls that production figures for April show that some wells in the field are having difficulty to make their quota of oil. Imperial No. 7 operated for one day in the month and produced 19 barrels of oil. Rumors indicate that this well has had trouble with water for some time.

Imperial Leduc No. 3 operated for 18 days in the month with an average production of 91.7 barrels. Leduc Consolidated No. 2 averaged 81 barrels per day for a total of two days. These three wells, all D3 zone completions, are exceptions to the rule which shows that other wells are well up to the quotas.

First Leduc Oil To Refinery On Monday

First crude from the Leduc oil field will arrive at the Edmonton refinery Monday morning.

Delivery will be made by truck at the rate of 2,000 barrels per day for the next two or three weeks.

The oil will be stored at the refinery site in preparation for the opening of the crude distillation unit next month.

Fresh crude will be taken from current production and will be trucked from wellhead in the field to relieve the strain on pipeline facilities resulting from the fields reopening.

Hotel Prowlers Score Again

Body of Victim Recovered From Buck Lake

Body of one of the three victims drowned last Sunday in Buck Lake, about 80 miles southwest of Edmonton, was recovered Friday by RCMP.

It was that of Norma Bernice Bergstrom, 26, of the nearby Minnehik district.

It was believed that the body came to the surface not far from where the overturned boat the three had been riding in was spotted by an Associated Airways plane last Monday night.

RCMP had given up dragging operations after three unsuccessful days of search for the bodies.

Two other persons in the boat with Miss Bergstrom were J. H. Burleigh, 47, and Alfred F. Pearson, 31. They are also from the Minnehik district.

Canada's Move Helps OC Dollar Position

LONDON, June 5.—(Reuters)—British financial officials explained Friday that the new facility which the Canadian government has granted for British investment in Canada will relieve the British government's dollar position.

Hitherto any direct British investment in Canada, for example the opening of a new branch or the establishment of a Canadian subsidiary by a British company, automatically imposed a strain on Britain's dollar reserves.

Whenever a British sold any Canadian securities in Canada, the resultant dollars had to be surrendered to the treasury which in turn had to use them to reduce the $700,000,000 loan which Canada made to Britain during the war. In this way the loan has been reduced by between $200,000,000 and $300,000,000.

In future the seller will still have to surrender the dollars to the British government, and so the British will still be unable to switch from one Canadian security to another in Canada. But the Canada move will now allow the British government to offset these dollars against any which it provides to Britons for direct investment in the Dominion.

British investors will not be allowed to finance their own capital outlays in Canada from sales there of Canadian securities. The general effect is that the drain on Britain's dollar reserves from future capital investment in Canada will be lessened at the expense of a slower reduction of the British government's debt to Canada.

Dollars arising from sales of revenue-producing securities, from Britain's national standpoint though not from the standpoint of individual Britons, can be used to create other productive investments instead of merely reducing a debt on which Canada does not charge interest.

This may make the British authorities more willing to grant applications for genuine investment in Canada, since they will no longer involve immediate dollar expenditure.

Markets Fighting Downward Trend

Oils Off 2.58 As Stocks Dip In Light Trading During Week

TORONTO, June 5.—(CP)—Stock markets this week showed a downward trend as very light trading kept interest low.

The little action there was has been credited by some to professional traders. They claim that investors are keeping away until the market consolidates its mid-May upward surge. Some "streeters" take the view that the consolidation is almost over and another jump will occur shortly.

Generally markets seemed to be fighting the week's downward trend and moved within narrow margins. In New York, the Associated Press 60-stock average closed out the four-day week at 70.4 with a drop of 0.3 Friday and a net drop of that amount on the week, equaling the lowest since May 13.

Canadian markets took a slightly deeper dip with almost all groupings down. Toronto industrials were down 1.19 in the exchange's index over the five days; golds dropped 1.73 and base metals 1.82. Little interest was shown in the western side which had the deepest drop of 2.58.

DAILY AVERAGE DOWN
Total Toronto sales were 4,235,000 shares, a daily average of 847,000 shares over the five days, compared with an average of 1,088,250 shares for the four days last week.

Papered down 1.80, the deepest decline on Montreal markets, and utilities were the only group holding steady. Changes in averages were: Banks down .18; utilities up .12; industrials down .8; commodities down 1.56; papers down 1.59 and golds 1.56.

Canadian exchanges will be closed Monday, the King's birthday and both Canadian and United States markets are taking Saturday holidays for the summer.

48¢ CENT DROP
Winnipeg July futures declined steeply all week, losing 48¢ cents or near their allowable limit in five-day trading. Oats and barley gained slightly.

Chicago wheat weakened both on crop prospects and the possibility that the amount to be spent on European aid may be reduced. Corn and oats about maintained their level.

New all-time Canadian highs were reached by steers at $22.75 and yearlings at $22.50 on livestock markets. Cattle prices continued to advance on slim supply which is likely to last until July.

Supreme Court Opens June 8

Thirteen cases are listed for trial at the court house Tuesday, June 8, with Mr. Justice C. C. McLaughlin presiding.

Norman R. Jackson, Saddle Lake reserve Indian, will go on trial on a charge of attempting to murder Richard H. Cardinal.

The accused was the object of an extensive police search following a shooting affray at the residence of Metro Yaciuk will answer to a charge of illegal possession, and John Forbes and Lloyd J. McMahon face charges of theft from the person of Anton Yakimovich. R. V. Stanley and Frank Skarlicki are charged with illegal possession of drugs, and George Prosenuk with bigamy.

Two charges of breach of recognition are also listed for trial.

Farmers' Tax Books Issued To 700,000

OTTAWA, June 5.—(CP)—Revenue Minister McCann told the Commons yesterday 700,000 special income tax guide books have been placed in the hands of Canadian farmers.

McCann recalled his March announcement that farmers who report taxable income based on cash actually received and cash expenses actually paid out during the calendar year would not be required to fill out the net worth statement on the new 1947 prairie farmers' or farmers' returns.

"Those farmers who report income on an accrual basis for tax purposes will be required to submit a statement of assets and liabilities as heretofore or to complete the appropriate parts of the net worth statement . . . where the department cannot obtain sufficient information by any other means, it may require a further statement which in many cases may actually be the net worth statement. This would apply for any year for which sufficient information is not available."

The guide book had two purposes. It gave the farmer a sample book "for the purpose of recording his income and expenses in such a way as to facilitate the accurate completion of his returns." It also answered questions.

Ice Cream Prices Move Upward

Except for the ever-popular ice cream cone, the days of nickel "treats" for the children seem to be over.

Owing to increased operating costs, manufacturers have increased the wholesale price by two cents a gallon on bulk ice cream and by six cents a dozen on such novelties as revels, popples and dixie cups.

The ice cream cone is the only item to remain at the old price because the increase per gallon of ice cream is so small.

But the novelty confections, which have been selling for five cents, have already gone up a penny.

Retail cost of ice cream bricks is now 26 to 27 cents instead of 24 to 25 cents.

Operating costs have gone up because of the higher price, to manufacturers, of milk, butterfat, chocolate flavoring and cardboard packaging. It was learned.

NEW HOMES

ALLAN ELLIOTT, Supervision

In 1945 we had hoped that by the spring or summer of 1946 we would be well into a construction program of good, sound, well-designed homes of the better type. Frankly, with the building material situation even worse than it was any time during the war, this program has had to be postponed until materials are available. However, we do expect to engage in the new home program for Veterans to be built under priority ratings as soon as plans can be perfected and material commitments secured.

Finlayson Heads Engineers' Group

Speaker Says Nazis Started
2nd World War Unprepared

BANFF, June 5.—(CP)—John Norison Finlayson, of Vancouver last night was installed as president of the Engineering Institute of Canada.

The installation ceremony at the 62nd annual convention of the institute at the Banff Springs hotel followed presentation of a series of papers on engineering subjects ranging from town planning to German technical preparedness at the start of the Second World War.

Mr. Finlayson is dean of the faculty of applied science and head of the department of civil engineering at the University of British Columbia.

J. A. Walker, executive engineer of the Vancouver town planning commission said there should be one acre of parking for every 100 persons in a town or city. He said dead-end streets were useful to discourage through traffic in residential districts but that cul-de-sacs create an obstruction in moving fire-fighting equipment.

H. H. Barrett, chief superintendent Defence Research Board at Suffield, Alta., said "we know how Germany initiated the war unprepared."

Another year or two spent on development of guided missiles and jet propelled aircraft, to say nothing of the high-speed submarines which were appearing in small numbers at the close of the war, might easily have turned the tide in Germany's favor.

Jury Finds Wreck Was Accidental

BLAHMOORE, June 5.—(CP)—A jury wreck that claimed the lives of three Canadian Pacific Railway employees near Lundbreck, Alta., May 27, was due to accidental causes, a coroner's jury ruled tonight.

The three men killed were Engineer W. M. Dommett, Fireman Edward L. James and Trainman Gordon H. Cripps, all of Lethbridge. They were killed when the engine of a westbound freight train passed over undetected tracks and plunged into a gulch. Evidence of district rangers at the inquest showed a cloudburst a few hours before the accident raised the level of a creek passing under the railway. The rush of water washed out a culvert and part of the roadbed.

Lundbreck is on the crown's neck line about 80 miles west of Lethbridge.

University Staffs Launch The Battle of the Bug

By Dick Sherbanuk

It's about time. National defence headquarters has declared all-out war on those miserable pests of Canada's northland, mosquitoes, black flies, and deer flies.

Shock troops in the "Battle of the Bug" will be professors and students of seven universities from Alberta to McGill.

They will base their operations from the Arctic military station of Fort Churchill, on the chilly shores of Hudson's Bay.

LAB. TESTS
Laboratory investigation will be carried out at Churchill, white-hot field parties (each of two or three men) will roam the north from Alaska highway and the Mackenzie river delta as far east as the new Quebec-Labrador iron mines, taking a census of the life habits of biting insect pests and various methods for their control.

University of Alberta's contingent to the insect war will be Bryan Hocking, assistant professor of entomology (bugology to you and me).

Prof. Hocking is a graduate of the University of London, and served in India during the war.

Long range projects in beating the insect enemy include such as:

ideas as spraying snow in order to kill the insects as soon as the thaw comes. This was done in Churchill this spring.

One result of this summer's campaign will be an entomological map of the entire North country, which will show all insect problems encountered in each area.

ALL DAY JOB
Job of the bug-hunters will be to collect insects, observe their breeding and biting habits (and that biting stuff is observed on their own hides), note the effects of weather and vegetation, and compile timetables of insect activities.

And speaking of 24-hour activity, the attacks of Northern insects are reminiscent of wartime round-the-clock bomber raids. The darn things come around in shifts—one type swarms in when another type flies off to rest.

As a result of the University crowd's work this summer, Edmontonians will also know what's what as far as the effectiveness of mosquito lotions are concerned—various repellents will be investigated during the Northern insect fight.

Local Gardens Show Signs of Promise

By Bea Thrifty

In the good 'ol' summer time there is laughter and song, picnic lunches, backyard barbecues, cool frosty drinks, light salad suppers—and oceans and oceans of sunshine.

This Chamber of Commerce plug for the present season comes straight from you-know-where. Always was mighty partial to the summer months.

One thing I liked was all the fresh fruit and vegetables—the crisp green right out your own backyard.

And that will be the only place you'll get them this year for as far as we are concerned the British Columbia produce is kaput.

But be of light heart—our very own garden is showing life and it won't be many more before we're eating peas, carrots, head lettuce—from them.

A lunch cloth you'll treasure if done in this stitchery. Sunflower in cross-stitch, daisies in lazy-daisy stitch make a gay embroidery.

Send twenty-five cents in coins for this pattern (stamps cannot be accepted) to The Edmonton Bulletin, Household Arts Dept. 60, Front Street, W., Toronto 1-A, Ont. Please allow a week or ten days for delivery.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Forsaken Son Needs Courage

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a boy 19 years old. Three months ago my widowed mother married a man who has moved into our house.

He dislikes me very much and was very sarcastic in everything he said to me, and that would start a fight between us. Finally I had to get out, as my mother advised it.

I have been gone over two months now and have just been laid off of work.

I owe money to the bank and have only $15. Also, I am terribly homesick, and I am not allowed to go back home.

ANSWER: You have my heartfelt sympathy, Jack. For when a mother turns her son out of his father's house to make room for a new husband, it hurts more than any other blow that Fate can ever deal him.

But, inasmuch as your mother has thrown you off, don't let it get you down. Determine that you will try all the harder to make good, because you are going to have to do it on your own.

This is my advice to you. Go to the bank and have a heart-to-heart talk with the president. Tell him about your mother's treatment of you.

Then tell him you are going to get a job and that you will pay off every cent that you owe the bank. Also, ask the banker if he will try to help you get work. There are very few older men who are not sympathetic, and I am sure you who are trying to make something of themselves.

TURNING POINT IN LIFE

This is the crisis of your life. If you haven't the courage to face it out, you will be a failure all through life.

But if you are brave enough to make the fight, to work hard all day and go to school at night, instead of running around with wild crowds and drinking and carousing and spending your wages on gold digging girls, you can make of your self a fine man and be a success in the world. Plenty of men have done it before you.

But enough whimsy and on to the business of shopping.

Cooking herbs—fascinatingly hot!—had set up in a little wooden cap board affair will delight the food connoisseurs.

Things like pepper flakes, parsley, bay leaves and the like are available in this handy way . . . at not so nominal a fee.

Candy is dandy and there's nothing that will soften your favorite girl's heart more than a box of peppermint patties.

They come in slim, elongated affairs—a white box containing a pound of the goodies—and all for 75c.

It makes the poor old heart bleed to see nothing at the market, it sometimes back at 75c a pound and head lettuce at 35c a head.

I suppose we should be thankful for small mercies and praise the airlines for bringing us our markets, the 12,000 pounds of tomatoes.

Brought home a carton of fresh-frozen cantaloupe and served it atop delicious, creamy vanilla ice cream.

Good! This combination . . . and only paid 15c for the cantaloupe.

If you're truly a lazy cook—you can buy complete pie mix—filling and pastry—for 25c a package.

Pretty soon the old saying about "Woman's place is in the home" won't carry much weight—if everything is put up in packages.

But I'd like to see them try to beat the individual touch of some of the kitchen wizzes I know.

There appears to be a new wonder gadget on the market. It is this miniature loom darned effort.

You pay $1.50 for it and you can mend those yawning, gaping holes in friend husband's socks—in practically no time at all.

Good rig this.

Our gardens are sporting beautiful, sweet-smelling lilacs—and women all over town are sporting their new white shoes.

Actually there aren't too many showing in the stores as yet—but as the season progresses—so will the display of white footwear.

Another reason why they have been a bit slow appearing is the tendency toward color underfoot. Popper, skinner, red, gray—these all lean up with light summer frocks.

Unfortunately not everyone can have the "peaches and cream" complexion as that of Evelyn Keyes, but early attention to adolescent skin disorders would have many an adult unhappiness.

WHY GROW OLD

Acne-Harasser To Women's Beauty

By Josephine Lowman

Acne is a harasser of beauty in women, especially young ones! No one, so far as I know, ever died of this disability but the psychological repercussions are great.

Only the hardest personality can weather this condition, if at all extreme, without a loss. This is especially true in the young man or woman, who is so anxious to please, to be popular, and has not yet gained an understanding of the value of the physical as compared to the mental and spiritual.

A few pimples on the face can create depression in the very young because they do not realize that kindness and understanding, and nerve and humor, are much more important than any physical attribute. Yet it is the very young man or woman who usually suffers from this trouble.

This condition, which usually appears at adolescence, calls for quick and stern attention by child and parent. This is true because of the psychological impact which may set the personality pattern for years to come, and also because most cases of acne can be cured if they are treated early enough.

The main offender in acne is the blackhead. The blackhead is actually only a plug in the sebaceous gland. There are many of these glands on the face, shoulders and chest, and they are especially active during adolescence. This plugged up glandular activity produces more than a normal amount of oil.

Therefore one of the most important parts of early acne treatment is washing the face thoroughly several times a day. Five times is not too much! It is also helpful to dry the face with rough towel.

The plug is usually an aftermath of the clogged gland. Bacteria thrive in oil. You should never squeeze any inflamed area, pimples included, yet this is just what most young people do. They also scratch their scalps and then touch their faces.

In any case of acne, the hair should be carefully considered. Sometimes it is wise to shampoo the hair several times a week.

If you cannot remove blackheads by frequent washing of the face and the rough towel treatment, you may need one of the little extractors. Drying lotions, in which salicylic acid is an important ingredient, are also helpful when applied regularly each night.

If you wish to have my leaflet No. 28, "Popularity," which gives you hints about the usual pimples and personality problems of adolescents, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Children Contented With Simplest Toys

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Most mothers discover that babies can be entertained with the simplest of toys.

Though the toy departments are crammed with toys made especially to fit the child's every entertainment need, all mothers know from experience that something as easily available as a piece of paper can keep the child's interest riveted until it is reduced to scraps.

Mrs. M. S. thinks I need to remind mothers that not all toys have to be purchased. Also, that relatives need to be told that toys should be for the moment, rather than the future.

"I am the proud Mama of an eight-months-old baby girl," she writes, "and the not-so-proud mistress of a three-room apartment. Every nook and cranny of this is bulging with the toys our daughter cannot use for at least another year."

"There is that stuffed doll, weighing more than the baby, as well as the rubber, sleeping doll whose moving eyes send her into hysterics."

"There is that stuffed dog who looks like a drowned cat when my daughter gets through drooling on him. All these cute and expensive toys, which she started to acquire at two weeks of age, now have to be stored in the valuable space needed for clothes and other necessities."

"Don't people realize how easily babies are satisfied at this age? A piece of cellophane, with torn edges that won't cut, can be crumpled in the hand and provide sparkle and noise. Cardboard boxes which have carried dry foods or an empty powder tin, are all delightful."

"These things can be discarded after a day or so and fresh ones provided if a visitor must buy a toy why not those colorful, plastic, cheap measuring spoons, cups or scoops which are washable and unbreakable? Check for sharp edges and smooth down with an emery board, and of course watch for any small part which might come loose."

"Please drop a hint to your readers so as to save some mother from worrying and wondering what she will do with that lovely truck that won't be used for another year."

"I've let you do the hinting. Maybe it would work to pack away all the unusable toys and store them with some relative. There seems to be no really tactical way to tell people not to buy their children the gifts they badly want to give."

Our leaflet No. 28, "Toys for All Ages," may help in the selection of toys of a type to be enjoyed immediately. Obtain it by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Collar-lines of shirts, dresses, and blouses are the most vulnerable points of wear, because of extra rubbing done on laundry day to remove soil from collars and neck facings.

FORMER CITY GIRL RETURNS FOR VISIT

SWEET PERFUME of lilacs attracted Kathleen Huff, left, and Barbara MacPherson to the terrace of the Macdonald hotel. Miss MacPherson, whose home is now in Winnipeg, was visiting in Edmonton during the week, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Huff.

Edmonton Welcomes Many Visitors; Beautiful Lilacs Bloom for Guests

Lilacs are blooming in Edmonton gardens in time to welcome out-of-town visitors from all parts of Canada and United States.

Rampaging flood waters in British Columbia have put a major-size crimp in motor and train travelling from the Pacific Coast.

Vancouver vacationers who have planned to spend their holidays west of the mountains have had to either toss their plans aside or travel by plane.

More than one citizen of the West Coast area has been stranded in Edmonton during the past week—due to transportation tie-ups.

Plane reservations are harder to get than green vegetables this week-end.

This past week, particularly, there have been a number of former Edmontonians renewing acquaintances in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Nickerson of Vancouver and their son Kenneth, who graduated recently in medicine from McGill University, were here during the week.

Mrs. J. L. Crawford, now of Vancouver; Mrs. W. Kerr, now of Toronto; and Mrs. R. W. Ryan, now of Winnipeg, have all been enjoying Edmonton's brilliant sunshine and the company of their friends.

Edith Martin June Bride

Putted plants decorated First Presbyterian Church for the recent wedding of Edith Martin and John Edward Pearson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearson of Edmonton.

The Rev. J. Macleath Miller performed the ceremony. A. P. Newcombe played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a dress of white satin fashioned with a rounded neckline and embroidered net yoke trimmed with seed pearls.

Wreath of white roses held her veil in place and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. Her only jewelry was an heirloom locket.

John Gosling was best man and ushers were William Priestly and John Pearson.

At a reception in the Masonic Temple a three-tier wedding cake flanked by bouquets of flowers centered the bride's table.

Those assisting were Mrs. W. Lloyd, Mrs. J. Bainbridge, Mrs. T. Kinney, Mrs. H. Goble, Mary Wilson and Doris Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearson will reside in Edmonton.

For a honeymoon trip to Haiti by car the bride travelled in a blue suit with brown topcoat and matching accessories.

Canada Way of Life Pleases English Guest

By Frances Guides

A country of joyous living is the way Mrs. Helen Helliwell of Halifax, England, describes Canada.

Declaring Alberta sunshine the most glorious she has seen since visiting Madeira in pre-war days, Mrs. Helliwell relaxed in plenty of it Thursday at the Edmonton home of her sister, Mrs. C. M. Small.

Her first visit to this country, it had been 35 years since she had seen her sister or her brother, Captain James Bell of Edmonton.

During that time Mrs. Helliwell has done a lot of things. For instance, she has become a leading chiropractor. She took up this profession when left a widow 20 years ago.

Looking through a list of trails in a magazine, she found there was room for newcomers in chiropractic. She promptly went to school to learn it.

Fine, strong-limbed Canadian children and young people with beautiful teeth impressed Mrs. Helliwell. "We're all fat in England and but we don't get the right food," she laughed.

First Canadian apples since the war have recently arrived in England. Fruit is most plentiful, says Mrs. Helliwell, but the weekly meat ration is equal to only two lamb chops.

Lovely colors of rooftops fascinated Mrs. Helliwell as she landed at the Edmonton airport. Houses in industrial England are drab and she loves the brightness and cleanliness she finds here.

Newspaper women are few and far between in England, Mrs. Helliwell says. In fact, she has never seen one in Yorkshire, where she lives.

Everything about Canada delights Mrs. Helliwell. She complains about only one thing—the mosquitoes.

She is seeing as much of Canada as possible, leaving Friday for a trip through the mountains. She keeps a diary as well as a set of notes and comments on everything she sees and everything she meets. When she returns to England in September she will speak to the Surgeon-General's Club, of which she is a member.

Efficient application of plant food varies with acidity of garden soil.

New Plant Food Practice To Speed Freedom Gardens

How to place plant food for the best effect on the crop is a problem now being debated by scientists. For home gardeners, it is not as serious as for the commercial grower, to whom the cost of plant food represents a major expense.

But the plants requirements are the same, in both home and market gardens, and V. A. Tiedjens, director of the Virginia Truck Experiment Station, Norfolk, Va., says the best practice for all gardens may be summarized as follows:

1. On soils which are acid, feeding below pH, plant food should be concentrated in bands or pockets, not touching plant roots but within easy reach.

2. On sweet soils, feeding above pH, shade plant food thoroughly into the soil, evenly and deeply. The reason for this difference in practice are found in chemical reactions which take place when fertilizer salts, particularly potash, are applied to soil containing acid. Here and there, for best effect, explanation, Prof. Tiedjens favors a definitely acid soil for growing vegetables, except the few which prefer acidity. The chief of these is the potato, where an acid soil discourages soil disease.

Dismissing the effect of lime on acid soils, Prof. Tiedjens said: "There are few acid soils growing vegetables which contain sufficient calcium. Before we can expect to harvest maximum yields we must satisfy the lime requirements of the soil. This may mean one, two or even ten tons of limestone per acre. Fear of over-liming has come about from the use of hydrated lime, rather than limestone, under certain circumstances."

"Aside from its effect on the pH and calcium content of soil, lime has many favorable, or unfavorable effects," he says. "It makes clay soil coarser and more porous; and helps makes plant food available by preventing phosphorus from tying up in the form of insoluble iron and aluminum phosphates."

A strong recommendation for application of lime is:

Plans were made for the all-western conference, which commences the 75th anniversary of the Baptist Church in western Canada. It will be held in Edmonton, June 28-29.

Rev. George Edwards, of Stethcona Baptist Church, Edmonton, is the new moderator. Mrs. W. E. Stewart, Edmonton, was elected vice-moderator. This is the first time a woman has filled the position and she automatically will become moderator next year.

Cody McDonald of Edmonton, moderator for the past year, will hold the position until July 1 by special request, in order that he be in office during the all-western conference this month.

Mr. McDonald's grandfather, "Pioneer" McDonald, started the first Baptist Church in Western Canada in Winnipeg 75 years ago. He continued organizing churches in the west until his death. Struck down by a heart attack, he died at the age of 80.

Better U.S. Urged To Smother Reds

President Truman Suggests "More, Better Democracy"

CHICAGO, June 5. (AP)—President Truman last night proposed that Congress smother the red menace in the United States with "more and better democracy" instead of outlawing the Communist party.

The way to do it, he said, is to pass laws that will provide the American people with homes they need, better medical care and schooling, social security, an equal chance for jobs at fair wages and a brake on inflation.

In the first major speech on a western tour which is sure to have an important bearing on whether he stays in the White House four more years, Truman said:

Held out a hand of friendship to Sweden, on the fringe of Russia's area of control in Europe, he said:

Asked that the United States erect a beacon of hope to Europe's displaced refugees, these "heres of democracy" who cannot go back to their own lands because they are anti-Communist.

The president spoke in the huge Chicago stadium in honor of the 100th anniversary of the migration of sons of Sweden across the prairie of the mid-west.

Highlight of this year's concert will be the violin duo, of Mr. Olson and Miss Yolande Boyaver playing Kalliwada's Concerto in B flat.

On the lighter side, Edmontonians will enjoy Hawaiian novelty songs played by the electric guitars of Misses Phillips and Miss Jean Wallish.

A ten-year-old Jasper Place boy is reported missing by RCMP officials today.

Bobby Carr, son of Mrs. Neil Carr, 10011 162 street, has been missing from his home since Friday night.

He was wearing a brown sweater, black trousers and running shoes, and was about 10 years old.

The youngster had not returned home at 9 a.m. today.

"Punch" Dickens Completes 2,500-Mile Trip

C. H. "Punch" Dickens, director of sales for DeLaval Aircraft Co. of Canada, is in Edmonton following delivery of a new plane at Prince George.

The plane, a six-passenger DeLaval Beaver, was delivered to Central B.C. Airlines and will be used in flood relief work.

The plane is equipped with floats.

Dickens left Toronto Wednesday morning and flew to Edmonton in 25 hours and 30 minutes.

On Northern Ontario he flew over an area where forest fires are raging. He reported the fire front about 80 miles long.

Dickens was delivered to Prince George as the ninth of similar type sold since manufacture started by the company's plant in Toronto.

Finland Accepts Loan by Russia

HELSINKI, June 5.—(Reuters)—Finland yesterday accepted a Russian loan of $2,000,000 loans at two-per-cent interest. Russia's loan follows her cancellation Thursday of $700,000 or half of the remaining reparations delivered owed by Finland under the armistice and peace treaties.

WITH THE FARMER

Canada Employs Farmers Aplenty

By Ted Horton

The average Canadian farm, according to the Canadian Bureau of Statistics, contains 238 acres and the land for each is valued at $2,645.

The Pontifical Financial Post reports these findings in its current issue and also says the value of the buildings on each holding is $1,481, of the machinery is $818 and of livestock $832.

Agnes Biondo, a 35-year-old woman, was made one of the 1947 census, but values have since increased. She is a farmer and her husband is a farmer.

The news dispatch did not disclose the breed of her horses, Wyandott, Leghorn, Rhode Island Red.

He said barnyard fowl now justify the golden eagle.

Encouraged by this legislative gesture, egg production is expected to double.

The delayed planting season may not hurt the crops too much, according to agricultural officials in Edmonton.

But it did raise the chickens with the attendance at the annual Farm
